CHEATS HIS AVENGERS.

Two suicides, one sterling in its accompaniments and the other the despairing act of a young woman hopeless of ever regaining her health, occurred in Chicago yesterday.

Crouching in a dark cellar, at the door of which 100 men were clamoring, an unidentified fugitive almost severed his head from his body with a razor rather than face the vengeance of his pursuers. He had been tracked to the cellar after he had lured a boy, five years old, to the place. He had been dead an hour before it was learned he had cut his throat. Cowering beside him was the boy, held there by the threat of his tormentor that he would kill him if he stirred and unaware that death had removed the menace.

The scene was the basement of the vacant building at 152 west Jackson Boulevard. The man had been seen to pass into the place with Lawrence Brosnan, whose home is at 132 west Van Buren street. Those who observed the two investigated. Threats from the boy's captor that he would shoot the first to enter held the pursuers off even after their number had reached a hundred.

The other suicide was that of Miss Florence Osborne, 25 years old, daughter of Eugene F. Osborne, prominent in the building of the World's Fair as a consulting engineer. It occurred at her home, in Jefferson avenue. Miss Osborne shot herself through the heart.

The suicide of Miss Osborne occurred soon after she had prepared luncheon. Two friends invited to dine with her and her father had arrived when she went to the basement, saying she wished to get some jelly. She had been downstairs only a moment when the shot was heard, and William I. Noyes, one of the guests, in company with Mr. Osborne, went to investigate. They found Miss Osborne, dead on the floor near the furnace, with blood pouring from a bullet wound in her left breast and a revolver, with one chamber empty, clutched in her right hand.

THE DOG.

The dog is man's most faithful friend. A man may lie, but a dog wont; a man may get drunk, a man may slander his neighbor, a man may embezzle and defraud, a man may borrow money, a man may steal money, a man may go into politics, a man may join the church, a man may get married, a man may knife his best friend, a man may run people down with an automoble, a man may gamble himself to ruin, a man may waist his substance in riotous living, a man may go to heaven—but a dog wont. Can these things be truthfully spoken of the other friends man has about him? There is a strong affinity between man and the dog; it must be the affinity of contract. Yet any man will resent being called a dog. Possibly the dog would resent being called a man if he understood—I do not know. I only know that the maxim works but one way; and if we should say: "Man is the dog's most faithful friend," there would be many to cavil, saying that it was mighty rough on the dog.—[Success.

SHIP LIGHTS TOWN.

Last March the Sesostris, a 4,000-ton freighter, was feeling her way along the coast of Guatemala in a dense fog, when suddenly she drove her prow upon the sands at the little town of Ocos and stuck there. Despite the aid of other vessels which chanced to come along, the ship remained hard and fast, and as the days went by became more and more firmly wedged in the soft sand and silt. The sand gradually piled up on both sides so that it was possible to walk almost around her, and the residents of the town, grasping the opprotunity so unexpectedly dropped in their very midst, made request to the captain to string wires from the ship's dynamos and light the place up a bit. This was done, and for sometime the little coffee station boasted of its electric lighting plant. The underwriters, however, decided to remove the machinery and sell the hull to the railroad company as a coffee warehouse.

Kodol will, without doubt, make your stomach strong and will almost instantly relieve you of all the symptoms of indigestion. Get a bottle of it today. It is sold here by W. F. Creighton & Co.

STUNG!

A Cleveland man who is an incorrigible joker, recently, in the company of a friend, boarded a street car in charge of which there was an extremely youthful conductor, a slim, boyish fellow, whose chin was absolutely guiltless of a hair, and whose rosy cheeks betokened a country training.

"Are you the regular conductor?" asked the joker, affecting an intense interest in the matter.

"Yes sir," replied the young fellow.

"Then permit me to say that you are the youngest conductor I ever saw. Why, you don't appear any older than my son, who is 17."

"Perhaps I don't," said the adolescent conductor, in a testy tone, indicating that the thing was beginning to pall upon him. "Fares, please."

"May I ask you just one question?" queried the Cleveland man when the fare had been paid.

"Yes, but please make it short; I'm busy," resorted the conductor.

"What I would like to know," said the Cleveland man, is this: "Were you born on this trip?"—[Harper's Weekly.

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 15, 1908.

THE ALARMING spread of cholera in Russia has given rise to the greatest fears that the whole European continent is to be ravaged by this disease and today Germany, France, Italy, Austria, England and other countries are planning the most rigid precautionary measures. No official reports are to be had from the scene of epidemic, but Austrian health authorities estimated today that there are 3,000 cases in St. Petersburg alone, and 5,000 cases in the southwestern provinces, not counting the Astrakhan province, where the disease is raging in its most virulent form. A third of the hundreds of cases in Astrakhan are proving fatal and the disease bids fair to sweep the entire province. Several suspected cases have appeared in Austria and it is feared that the disease has already gained a firm foothold there. More than 100 new cases have developed in St. Petersburg in the last 24 hours and forty deaths have been added to the roll. The prevailing poverty, worse than for years, and the impoverishment of the people of Russia and Europe generally have made the conditions favorable for the disease.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT will take the stump in behalf of the candidacy of William H. Taft for president, making quite a number of speeches where he believes they will do the most good. Announcement to this effect will, it is said, be made immediately after the return of the president to Washington from Oyster Bay. It is the intention of the president to remain one week longer at Sagamore Hill. Immediately after his return to Washington he will plunge headlong into the heart of the campaign, giving the advisory committee of the republican national committee the benefit of his advice. Just when and where the president will make his speeches has not been determined. It is practically established that he will go on the stump after Judge Taft himself begins his speaking tour in the middle west. Mr. Roosevelt's open letter in which he virtually called upon the voters of the country to make Taft his successor has naturally disgusted many people, and the above announcement will make the president still cheaper in the eyes of the multitude.

THE SULLEN revolt against President Roosevelt by many members of the New York republican convention in the matter of the renomination of Governor Hughes is causing considerable anxiety in administration circles. Not once, but several times the "big stick" has been swung and the olive branch of Secretary Root was waved all of yesterday. The visible effect thus far has been infinitesimal. The leaders are still out in the open to beat the governor. They are just as defiant as ever and desperately in earnest. They are outspoken in this defiance. They professed last night to have about 525 votes pledged against the renomination of the governor. They need but twenty more in order to have things their own way. The leader at Oyster Bay, whose word has been law for so long, whose requests have been taken to be commands and whose power has dominated counties, towns and villages, is set at defiance, and only an actual ballot in the convention can reveal whether he is still potent to lead the party of his own state. Rooseveltism seems about to go out with a bad smell.

THE theory quite generally held that times of financial and industrial stagnation are followed by waves of crime is borne out in the recent volume of burglaries and other predatory crimes reported in the press of the United States. One ray of light was thrown on this problem in the General Sessions Court of New York one day recently, when sixty-seven prisoners were to be sentenced for various crimes, an unusual number for one day. It was learned by the court that at least twenty of the men were prisoners for the first time, and they were evidently laboring men out of work. All of them made the plea in extenuation that necessity had driven them to steal. None had taken a large sum or had used violence. In most cases the judge suspended sentence.

FORMER Senator Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia, who was in Baltimore yesterday, said Mr. Bryan would win if the election were held now. This utterance of such a political sage as ex-Senator Davis should animate every democrat in the country to keep the ball rolling. If the nominee of the party is now towering above Mr. Taft, there is no good reason why he should not by next November be head and shoulders above him.

THE election yesterday in Maine spread another frost over the republican camp this morning, and futile attempts are being made to explain the cause of the reduced majority. The latest returns indicate a plurality of only 8,000 for the republican candidate for governor, the smallest given in a presidential year for a long time.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 15.

Postmaster General Meyer has directed the postmasters of the country to confer with their local school authorities as to the practicability and desirability of delivering to the school children short talks on the organization of the postal service. The design is to inform the pupils of the scope of its operations, the methods of delivering the mails, the classification of mail matter, and the registry and money order systems. Incidentally the postmasters are expected to make known plans for betterment, such as the establishment of postal savings banks and the extension of the parcel post.

The Department of Justice was advised today of the capture of between 30 and 40 seal poaching Japanese and two schooners, the Sakai Maru, and the Pinsai Maru, within the three mile limit of St. Paul island. The revenue cutter Bear made the capture, after a chase. The men were taken to Unalaska, and later will be removed to Valdeza. On one of the schooners were found several hundred skins, and on the smaller boats skins and fresh blood, giving positive evidence of poaching.

The government is determined to get out of the employers liability law all the potential power that is in it. W. B. Harr, of the solicitor general's office, has been sent to San Francisco to prepare a brief and make argument in a number of such cases before the Circuit Court of Appeals. Harr has had charge of employers' liability cases before the Supreme Court.

Further than an intimation that the attitude of the United States will not be an obstructive one, and that action on the France-Spanish note will likely be pending some advice as to the attitude of the European power more directly concerned, the state department is remaining silent on the Morocco situation The likely method of procedure will be an exchange of notes between the European nations, and as a result of this the United States will be advised, and at that time will outline its attitude. The only interest which this country has in the situation is the preservation of commerce and international amity. The general opinion is that the Franco-Spanish note is eminently fair, and that its general outline will be readily agreed to.

MR. BRYAN IN BALTIMORE.

Hon. William J. Bryan, democratic nominee for president, addressed mass-meetings in Annapolis yesterday afternoon and in the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore, at night.

The contrast with the tremendous outpourings in 1896 and 1900, was noticeable. About 3,500 persons, including many ladies, heard him.

In his armory speech Mr. Bryan opened with the labor question and took up the tariff, trusts, the House rules and bank deposits in the order named. His speech was conservative in tone throughout.

At Annapolis Mr. Bryan discussed the same subject, except that he referred but briefly to the labor question saying he had not time to make an argument on it.

Mr. Bryan arrived in Baltimore about 11 o'clock in the morning from Deer Park, where he spent Sunday. Chairman Vandiver and a number of democratic leaders met him and escorted him to the Belvedere, where he held a reception and conferred with leading democrats.

Shortly after noon Mr. Bryan left for Annapolis, where he spoke to his audience in front of McDowell Hall St. John's College. He returned to Baltimore for dinner at the Belvedere. Today he went to Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Mr. Bryan, when informed of the returns from the Maine election, expressed his gratification and said they indicated a trend toward the democratic party.

RED MEN IN SESSION.

The Great Council of the Improved Order of Red Men of the United States formally began its sitting at Bridgeport, Ct., yesterday. Following an open meeting, at which the Red Men were welcomed to the state and city, the delegates went into closed session for the transaction of business.

At the closed session Great Incohone Bird's "long talk" covered in detail the work of the year. Great Chief of Records Wilson Brooks, of Chicago, presented a report showing that the membership on January 1, 1908, was 386,841, an increase during the year of 30,285. The membership of the degree of Pocahontas was given as 84,820, an increase for the year of 5,094.

The total number of tribes is 3,717, an increase of 233 during the year; degree of Pocahontas, 1,251, an increase during the year of 69. The total receipts from all sources were $3,590,252 and the expenditures as follows: Total relief for sick benefits, widows and orphans and burial of dead, $1,291,287; for other purposes, $1,761,810. The tribes have on hand in cash $1,471,465. Invested, $3,835,563. Total wealth of all tribes and councils, $5,307,028.

COURT OF APPEALS.

All the cases heard in the Court of Appeals yesterday were from Rockingham courts, as follows:

Mathews & Co. vs. Progress Distilling Company; argued and submitted.

Bowman vs Liskey; argued by Attorneys Conrad & Conrad and Roller & Marks for the appellant, and Sipe & Harris for the appellee, and submitted.

Wright vs. Johnson; argued and submitted.

The court will hand down a number of opinions this week and will probably adjourn Thursday or Friday, to meet in Richmond in November.

Destructive Fire.

Saco, Me., Sept. 15.—The worst fire that has visited Maine since the million dollar conflagration at Portland was brought under control here about 9 a. m. after doing $500,000 damage. Eighty-five tenement houses are in ruins and 600 persons homeless. The heaviest loser is the Diamond Match Company, which had 7,000 000 feet of lumber consumed.

Kodol will, in a very short time, enable the stomach to do the work it should do, and the work it should do is to digest all the food you eat. It makes the stomach sweet and it is pleasant to take. It is sold here by W. F. Creighton & Co.

News of the Day.

Mrs. Charles P. Codd, 32 years old, of Baltimore, died yesterday morning at the Maryland University Hospital from injuries received in a runaway accident yesterday one week ago while driving in a surrey.

Despondent because he was a victim of tuberculosis, Bud Howard, a rich farmer, of Gladsden, Ala., committed suicide by jumping into a well while his daughter stood near by. She was unable to prevent her father's action.

A robbery of certified checks to the face value of $10,000 on the Chapman National Bank of Portland, Me., was reported to the police yesterday. The robbery took place from the automobile of Henry O. Baxter, of Brunswick, Me., in front of a Boston hotel. The checks were in a suitcase.

H. H. Smith, father of Gov. Hoke Smith, of Georgia, and one of the best-known educators in the south, died at his home, in Atlanta, yesterday. He was a native of New Hampshire, and had lived in various California cities, in Baltimore and parts of North Carolina. Mr. Smith went to Atlanta about 15 years ago. He was 88 years old.

Harry K. Thaw arrived at White Plains, N. Y., late yesterday from Poughkeepsie, and was immediately taken to the county jail and put in a cell in the hospital section. He wanted to pose on the jail steps for a group of photographers, but Keeper Horton prevented this, leading Thaw inside by the arm.

The most important government stations in Alaska are now in complete wireless communication with the United States. The signal corps has completed the establishment of six wireless stations as a cost of over $100,000 which will insure continuous communication in every season of the year.

S. L. Patterson, commissioner of agriculture for the state of North Carolina, died at his home at Lenoir yesterday, following a lingering illness from Bright's disease. He was fifty-eight years old, and was serving his second term in office. He leaves a large circle of near relatives well-known in this state.

Mary Howard, colored, 70 years old, living near Glen Burnie, Anne Arundel county, was accidentally shot in the hip yesterday afternoon by her small grandson, who was playing with a gun. She was taken to Annapolis for treatment, but her age makes her recovery doubtful.

While lighting a fire with kerosene in the kitchen of her home, east Meadowbrook, L. I., Carrie Snyder, the 18-year-old daughter of David Snyder, a wealthy farmer, was so severely burned that she died yesterday. In trying to rescue her, her mother was burned from head to foot and is in a critical condition.

Mrs. Vera Casey, formerly of Louisville, Ky., and now the wife of a New York broker, who at present is said to be out of the city, was found in a critical condition at the home of a friend in New York, yesterday, with a vial which had contained bichloride of mercury in her hand. She is not expected to recover from the effects of the poison.

The increase in the value of farm property of $8,000,000,000 between 1900 and 1907 is nearly nine times as great as the aggregate national banking capital of the United States. It is more than one-half as large as the total capitalization, bonds and stocks included, of all the railroads in the United States. It is nearly three times as large as the aggregate savings bank deposits of the whole country.

Weather bureau officials are closely watching the progress of the West India hurricane which, after doing much damage at Turks Island, headed for the Florida coast. Hurricane warnings were displayed yesterday at Jupiter, Miami and Key West, and storm warnings at other points on the Florida peninsula. The storm whose center yesterday was just south of Nassau, in the Bahama Islands, is moving slowly westward or northwestward.

Nicola Bolaro, an Italian, of Derby, Ct., late yesterday fired five shots from a revolver at Mrs. Tersina Proda, a fellow countrywoman, three of them taking effect. Bolaro then fled, and as the police were about to arrest him a short time later he swallowed two ounces of carbolic acid, dying soon afterwards. The motive for the shooting is thought to have been revenge. Mrs. Proda's condition is said to be serious.

Arthur Spiers was yesterday held for action of the grand jury on the charge of assaulting Police Officer Sutton, at Staunton. Spiers snapped a pistol three times in Sutton's face, but the cartridges failed to explode, as the weapon was new and the trigger had not been adjusted. James Williams was fined $42.85 for slashing at Officer Criddle with an open razor. Neither of the officers was injured, as they soon had their assailants in their power.

What appears to the authorities of Albany as a murder and suicide occurred early yesterday on the Troy road, just outside of Albany. The dead body of Michael J. O'Leary, aged about 45, a saloonkeeper of Albany, was found lying on the floor of the kitchen in the home of H. A. Wilkinson, his brother-in-law. Near by in a chair was the dead body of Mrs. O'Leary. Both had bullet wounds in the head. The police believe that following a quarrel O'Leary shot his wife and then killed himself.

Mrs. Lizzie Steil, of 715½ Eighth street northwest, Washington, mysteriously disappeared from her home at 6 o'clock last night, after saying she intended to drown herself. Mrs. Steil is said to be slightly demented, and her uncle, W. A. Harrison, reported the matter to the police authorities at a late hour last night, with the request that a lookout for the missing woman be posted along the water front. She is described as being of slender build, with pale complexion and dark brown hair.

Hugh Coyle, credited with being the original of the modern press agent, died at the County Hospital, in Chicago, Saturday, although news of his death did not become public until yesterday. He was 65 years old and death was due to cancer. His home was at Washington. The decedent was widely known in theatrical circles. He was a telegraph operator and a drummer boy in the civil war, after which he created the position of "press agent," as it is known today. He served for years on the publicity staff of P. T. Barnum. Mr. Coyle was taken ill at Kansas City recently and went to Chicago for expert treatment. He will be buried by the Actors' Fund.

Virginia News.

The Norfolk High School building, a frame structure accommodating 480 pupils, was practically destroyed by fire last night.

Mrs. J. P. Jeffries recently sold to Mr. John A. Maddox a farm near Remington for $10,000. Mr. Maddox formerly resided in Stafford and is a well-known Mason.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. D. T. Fallen, formerly of Lottsburg, Va., died at her home in Washington Sunday. Her body will be taken to Lottsburg for interment.

Mr. Henry Olive, of Stafford, grubbed twelve acres of stump land in two days on his farm known as "Springfield." Some of the stumps were three feet in diameter. Mr. Olive uses a traction engine and a log chain.

It is expected that the decision in the South Carolina dispensary cases will be handed down in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Norfolk today. The case involves a question of states' rights.

Miss Cordelia Endora Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Scott, of Somerset, Va., was married on Sunday last to Mr. R. A. Smith, of Culpeper county, by Rev. F. G. Scott, of Petersburg. The bride and groom have gone on an extensive bridal tour.

After an illness of only a few days' duration, Mrs. Austin Taliaferro, aged 70 years, widow of the late Capt. Lawrence Taliaferro, died at the home of Mrs. E. M. Crutchfield, in Fredericksburg, Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Martha Wright, 35 years old, wife of William Wright, who was a laborer up to nine months ago, when blindness compelled him to stop work, lies at King's Daughters' Hospital, Norfolk, suffering from four bullet wounds inflicted by her husband. She will recover.

At the annual protracted meeting of South Boston Colored Church, near Craddockville, a row occurred over a game of crap, which resulted in the death of Milton Drummond, of Onancock, and Charles Parker, of Wardtown, and the serious wounding of two others. All of the parties are negroes.

Saturday night the launch of J. Harmanson Killmon, of Onancock, was nearly destroyed by fire. Mr. Killmon was returning from a fishing trip, when an explosion occurred, followed by fire. Most of the wood work was consumed and he was severely burned about the hands and arms.

George B. Gaines, aged 35 years, a prominent horseman of Richmond, dropped dead in front of the Manley Hotel in Fairmont, W. Va., Sunday night, from heart disease. Mr. Gaines had a string of horses to exhibit at the fair.

Although in no way to be characterized as an elopement, circumstances out of the ordinary attended a wedding yesterday at noon at the Henrico home of Edward J. Willis, when Miss Mary Lee, of Norfolk, daughter of the late James W. Lee, became the bride of Thronton Jones, mayor of Hampton.

Miss Maude Jane Drummond, daughter of Sheriff Drummond, of Amherst county, and William Henry De Witt, also of Amherst, eloped to Rockville and were married shortly before 2 o'clock Saturday night by Rev. Thomas H. Campbell, pastor of the Baptist Church, at Rockville, Md.

J. R. Smith, who escaped from jail at Luray, on Saturday, was arrested yesterday at Hagerstown, Md., and is held pending the arrival of a Luray officer. Smith, who was in the Luray jail awaiting trial on the charge of forgery, has a sweetheart and she is believed to have been the attraction that carried him to Hagerstown after he escaped from prison.

Harry W. Smith, master of the Grafton Hunt Club, of Worcester, Mass., has been elected master of the newly organized Loudoun Hunt Club, and the Grafton hounds and the Loudoun hounds will hunt the country around Leesburg. The Loudoun Hunt Club has leased the Vandevanter property in Market street for the season.

Because his father refused to give him a small amount of money nine weeks ago, Joseph Webster, the twenty-three-year-old son of Reuben Webster, a Roanoke county farmer, left home. The family believed he sought a home elsewhere, but yesterday his body was found, picked clean of flesh by buzzards, near the Webster homestead. Young Webster had shot himself through the head.

L. S. Ricketts, of Orange, has been appointed secretary of the Virginia Horse Show Association by the president of the association, Charles Mallikin, of Boyce, Clarke county. Mr. Ricketts succeeds the late Charles W. Smith, who died three weeks ago at his home, in Warrenton, from injuries sustained by a fall from his horse at the Norfolk horse show several years ago.

Bert M. Fernald, republican, was elected governor of Maine over Obadiah Gardner, democrat, at the election yesterday. The reduced plurality is estimated at 10,000. All four republican candidates for Congress and Charles P. Hatch, republican candidate for state auditor, were elected. Obadiah Gardner, democratic candidate for governor, is head of the State Grange Patrons of Husbandry.

Mr. John M. Fox, a well-known farmer of Swepson, Mecklenberg county was gored to death by a bull on Saturday. Mr. Fox was leading the animal from one field to another when the bull attacked him. The beast threw him to the ground and tore his clothing from his body, even his shoes being torn off. He was rescued by a farm hand, but died an hour later. He was 41 years old, and leaves a widow and eight children.

Judge Edmund Waddill, jr., of the United States District Court, has issued an order whereby Rev. James T. Hargrave, an unfrocked Episcopal clergyman, convicted of frauds through the extensive use of the mails, who is now a prisoner in the Hanover county jail, will be removed to a hospital in Richmond, it having been learned that on account of his physical condition further confinement in jail might prove hazardous to the life of the prisoner. Hargrave was convicted at the June term of the United States District Court, having confessed his guilt under two indictments. His home, Cedar Hurst Lodge, is one of the handsomest in Hanover county. The property cannot be seized for the ex-minister's debts, he having taking the precaution to turn all his possessions over to his daughter.

Before leaving Richmond Saturday Mrs. Flower cleared her skirts of any connection with Dr. Flower's schemes in a confession to the detectives, in which she openly acknowledge that Dr. Flower came to Richmond to swindle unsuspecting citizens, through selling stock of the Appalachian Mining and Smelting Company, a corporation chartered under the laws of Virginia and of which local business men were the head.

Today's Telegraphic News

New York Democrats.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Despite conferences which ran into the early hours of the morning, the democratic leaders have not yet agreed upon their candidate for governor.

It was expected that after the arrival of Judge Alton B. Parker, Judge Morgan O'Brien and National Chairman Norman E. Mack, a decision would be speedily reported. They all have had frequent meetings with Murphy, Connors and McCarren without avail.

Chas. F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, seems in control of the convention. Although Chairman Conners is still talking about the nomination of Lieutenant Governor Chanler, it is declared that Chanler may be counted out of it.

A dark horse, who, some say, will be Supreme Court Judge James W. Gerard, of New York city, may carry off the prize. Gerard married a daughter of the late Marcus A. Daly, the Montana mining king, and is supposed to have a pot of money. Gerard holds close and pleasant relations with Murphy.

Discussion of the democratic state platform is occupying part of the time of the leaders today and it is said that considerable progress has been made in shaping up the first rough draft which was brought here by Daniel F. Cohalan, Tammany's grand sachem.

The Denver platform and the candidacy and policies of William J. Bryan will be endorsed. The planks as to labor, injunctions, and the guarantee of bank deposits will be incorporated in the state platform.

Governor Hughes will be condemned.

Shortly after the hour of noon the convention assembled. The gavel was in the hands of State Chairman Connors.

Senator Patrick H. McCarren, the Brooklyn leader, today made the important statement that he had been assured by State Chairman Connors that he would stand by him if Murphy tried to unseat the McCarren delegates. When this was reported to Chairman Connors, he practically confirmed it.

Questioned as to the governorship, Senator McCarren said:

"I am still for Adam, of Buffalo. Everybody seems to think he is the strongest man that could be named, yet they wont nominate him. As for Gorman, I want to say that no man named by Tammany Hall or in any way affiliated with that organization can be elected. If such a nomination is made he will be defeated by 100,000 votes."

Riotous Students.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, president of the Armour Institute, took steps today to prevent the annual class rush, following the sensational arrest last night of fifty or more students. After the raising of a freshman flag on a 125 foot pole, members of the freshman and sophomore classes clashed. Twenty of the freshmen were seized by fifty "sophs" and rushed to the lake front. The quarters of the Farragut Boat Club were raided, a small boat stolen and the captives carried to a deserted yacht, where they were bound hand and foot, while the waves washed over them. A riot call was sounded and 25 policemen rushed to the scene. Before they arrived other freshmen also arrived and a general fight ensued. The police were forced to drive the boys into a corner of the boat house and use their clubs freely before they made the arrests. The captive freshmen were rescued from the yacht by members of the life saving crew and policemen.

Germany and Morocco.

Berlin, Sept. 16.—Herr Stemrich, acting secretary foreign office, has notified both the French and Spanish embassies that Germany will consider the Franco-Spanish note regarding Morocco in the "most friendly spirit." One thing that Germany will insist upon is that all deals between France and Abdul Aziz, the former sultan, be made wholly public. Germany fears that there may be a secret pact between France and Morocco.

A Denial.

Quarantine, N. Y., Sept. 15.—The steamer Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse, which arrived today from Bremen, Southampton and Cherbourg, had among the passengers Hermann Von Legercrantz, Swedish minister to the United States and his attache, Count L. Von Ugglas. The minister said there was no truth in the rumor that his relations with President Roosevelt was not pleasant. He was happy to return to his post and enjoyed his residence in this country and was glad to come back.

Death from Apoplexy.

New York, Sept. 15.—Joking and laughing with friends while on his way from his home in Mount Vernon to New York, Charles C. Tyler, 75 years old, local manager of the Lockport Cotton Batting Company, was stricken with apoplexy and died on the train. Until four months ago Tyler was a cotton broker. He was a widower and prominent in Mount Vernon.

DIED.

Suddenly, on Monday, September 14th, EDGAR HUNTER COOKE, son of Annie Roberts and the late John Thomas Cooke and grandson of the late Robert L. Hunter. Funeral from his late home, 426 Eighth street southwest, Washington, D. C., Thursday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

At the home of his parents, 421 Wilkes street, at 9:30 Monday night, WALTER EDWIN JEFFRIES, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jeffries, aged 9 years.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled
The boon his love had given;
And though he body slumbers here
The soul is safe in heaven.

This morning, at her home, 210 south Henry street, MARY ELTON SHAFFER, daughter of Mary and the late Charles G. Shaffer, aged 23 years Funeral from Grace Church Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m. Friends of the family invited.—[Washington papers please copy.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 15.—William J. Bryan, the democratic presidential candidate, today bitterly attacked Judge Taft, his republican opponent, and openly accused him of deliberate evasion and misrepresentation. He further assailed the judge on his record as governor general of the Philippines, and insisted that there was much to explain in his record there.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 15.—Firmly convinced after his experiences in Maryland that the electoral vote of that state will be cast for him in November, William J. Bryan, the democratic presidential candidate, is today invading New Jersey, another state which his friends hope he may win. The candidate arrived here today from Baltimore and was met at the station by a good sized, but undemonstrative crowd. He was, while here, the guest of honor at a luncheon tendered by a committee of the democratic state committee of New Jersey. At this luncheon Bryan made an appeal for harmony in New Jersey.

"This is plainly a democratic year," he declared, "and the republican party is in full retreat. All that is necessary to ensure success is for us to work shoulder to shoulder, see that the vote is gotton to the polls and then finally see that it is correctly counted."

The candidate left at noon for Washington Park, N. J., where he spoke on the issues of the campaign.

Holland and Venezuela.

The Hague, Sept. 15.—A pacificatory note was sounded today at the opening session of the States-General, when in the reading of a message from the throne on behalf of Queen Wilhelmina, who is too ill to leave her palace, it was declared that Holland is doing everything possible to bring about an amicable adjustment of the difficulty with Venezuela.

"In the course of our friendly relations with other powers," the message read. "The break with Venezuela occurred. We are now endeavoring to heal this breach by peaceable means and we hope to succeed."

A large part of the message dealt with the financial condition of the country, many recommendations were made for strengthening the treasury. An increase in the succession duty and a supplementary tax on capital and a general income tax were advocated.

The message was received with enthusiasm.

Waiting for His Wife and Child.

Millville, N. J., Sept. 15.—Bewailing the loss of his young wife, Sarah L. Allen, and his pretty three-year-old daughter, Albert Allen, 30 years old, of Boston, is today pacing the pavement in front of the postoffice here hoping against hope that she may call here for her mail. Allen sent his wife's child here some time ago when out of employment. Later he went to Philadelphia where he remained for 25 days. Penniless the husband walked from Philadelphia but did not find his wife. The police are making a house to house canvass for the missing woman and child, while Allen fears that his wife is either the victim of a plot or has carried out her threat.

Outwitted the Police.

Altoona, Pa., Sept 15.—Securing a package of $500 which had been placed in a stated spot as a decoy two black handers today took the money from under the very eyes of the police. Lawrence Debarter a rich Italian merchant, recently received a letter from the black hand demanding $500 or his life would pay the forfeit. He conferred with the police and the money was placed under a stone. While the police were waiting for their prey two nimble footed men removed the stone, secured the ransom and escaped before the police could lift a hand to prevent.

Princess and Child Abandoned.

Paris, Sept. 15.—The matrimonial troubles of the Prince and Princess De Broglie have culminated in the abandonment of the princess and her child and a threatened suit for divorce by the prince. The princess was formerly Estelle Alexander, of San Francisco. She married Sidney B. Belt, from whom she was divorced, and became the wife of Robert de Broglie in Chicago in 1906.

The princess declared today that the action of her husband results from his having become enamored with another woman.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 15.—The Harriman stocks again became strong after the first hour, Union Pacific crossing 167 and with the dividend selling at a new high point for this year. Southern Pacific was also a feature, moving up one point before noon. Reading passed 137 point. There was renewed interest in Erie which advanced 1½ and the same interests that were active in these stocks, were quiet buyers of the Rock Island issues.

Evelyn Thaw in Boston.

Boston, Sept. 15.—Under an assumed name, Evelyn Thaw is in Boston today visiting her brother, Howard Nesbit, who is playing the part of a goat in a local musical comedy. Mrs. Thaw came in her automobile from Portland, Me. It is believed that one object of her visit is to discuss with her brother and his manager, Joe Weber, a proposition to reappear upon the stage.

Explosion of Dynamite.

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 15.—A carload of dynamite on a southbound Missouri, Kansas and Texas local freight train exploded in front of the depot at Windsor, twenty miles south of here, today. More than a dozen persons were injured, of whom several will likely die.

International Religious Congress.

Oxford, Sept. 15.—The International Congress of the History of Religions opened here today, Sir. Alfred Lyall presiding. Prof. Morris Jastrow, jr., of the chair of semitic languages in the University of Pennsylvania will preside over the section for the discussion.

Frightful Accident.

New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 15.—With his right arm off the shoulder as the result of falling into the thresher and being dragged into the machinery, Abraham Gullick, aged 50, a farmer is dead today. He was assisting in threshing wheat when he was caught in the machinery.

A sprained ankle may be cured in about one-third the time usually required, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and giving it absolute rest. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

New York Republicans.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15.—After a conference lasting until the small hours this morning the word was passed about that Governor Charles E. Hughes will be renominated today, probably on the first ballot.

The real collapse of the Hughes opposition came last night when Woodruff who, it is declared, had been in telephone communication with both the president and Taft, attended a conference of Kings county delegates.

During the evening and well into the morning a sub-committee of the committee on resolutions held a session and worked out the first draft of a platform. No announcement has been made of the nature of this, however, and none will be made until the word comes from Chairman Woodruff direct that the nominee will be Governor Hughes, or whoever may be selected.

Shortly before noon a cablegram was received here from United States Ambassador to Germany Dr. Jayne Hill in which he declined positively to accept the nomination for governor.

It was 2:07 p. m. when Chairman Elihu Root called the convention to order. The temporary organization was then made permanent and Secretary Root as permanent chairman declared that his speech would be the same as the democratic attitude on the financial question.

When the reading of the platform reached the section saying "we endorse the policies of Governor Hughes" the galleries burst forth in a frenzy of applause and cheering. The demonstration spread slowly at first being entirely confined to the galleries but gradually reaching the delegates.

Job E. Hedges, chairman of the committee on resolutions then presented the platform and concluded the reading of the same. The resolution to adopt was accepted without a dissenting vote.

Frank K. Cook, of Genesco took the platform to place in nomination Speaker James Wadsworth, jr.

At the mention of Wadsworth's name there was a round of genuine applause. Wadsworth's district came to its feet cheering, but Albany was the only other delegation to rise.

Upon the conclusion of his speech the delegations from Kings, Queens, Hamilton, Onondaga, Schuyler, Otsego, Delaware and Wadsworth's congressional district came to their feet; but the cheering quickly subsided and William Barnes, jr., of Albany, took the platform to second Wadsworth's nomination.

The San Francisco Diocese.

Rome, Sept. 15.—The propaganda today definitely decided to reject all the names suggested for the coadjutor of the San Francisco diocese, which disposes of the fight made in behalf of Rev. T. J. Hanna for this post. The appointment will be held up for some time as the result of this decision.

Good for Biliousness.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tables last night, and I felt fifty per cent. better than I have for weeks, says J. J. Firestone of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson. Samples free.

Emma Goldman.

New York, Sept. 15.—The United States will be rid of Emma Goldman, champion of anarchy, for a time. She is going to forsake the shores of America for Australia, where she will make a lecture tour. The trip will be made at the invitation of the anarchist party in Australia. Emma will sail for Australia in January.

Taft Has Nothing to Say.

Cincinnati, O., Sept 15.—There will be no prolongation of the long distance debate between Bryan and Taft. Judge Taft said today when shown the statement given out by Bryan at Philadelphia: "I have nothing to say." He would not make an answer or any kind of comment on the statement of the democratic candidate.

Two Men Asphyxiated.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 15.—Two men were suffocated and three others were injured in a fire which swept through the Windsor end of the Michigan Central tunnel early today. At 8 o'clock this morning the fire was still burning but was under control.

WRIGHT'S AIR SHIP.

Distrusting the fifteen-mile breeze which swept over Fort Myer yesterday, Orville Wright modestly declined to fly, and 8,000 anxious men and women who thronged the parade grounds were disappointed. Although the wind died down now and then, the king of the air refused to take any chances with his aeroplane. He waited from 3 o'clock until after 6 for the zephyrs to subside, and then announced there would be no flight. Several hundred automobiles and carriages made their way to the Fort Myer turnpike and retraced the macadamized path to the national Capital. Persons less fortunate than those owning equipages "beat a hot foot" to the ordinary and plebeian trolley line. The fact that Wright did not make an ascension may not have shaken the faith of his admirers, for every day the crowds are the same. Today he expects to take another person with him. The passenger probably will be Lieut. Lahm or Lieut. Selfridge. A number of Alexandrians who went to Fort Meyer yesterday to see the flight were very much disappointed.

"FAKED" SUICIDE.

W. W. Inze, alias Small, who is held in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury on the charge of forgery, caused a little excitement in the jail last night by informing a prisoner that he had taken poison and would probably be dead in a short time. The prisoner hastened to tell Warden Candler, who sent for Dr. Thomas Gibson. In the meantime, the jail warden administered an emetic. Dr. Gibson arrived with a stomach pump and the prisoner getting a glimpse of the instrument informed the doctor that he was only joking. As has been previously stated in the Gazette, Inze was arrested several weeks ago. He tried, it is alleged, to pass a check for $16 50 which, he said, had been given to him by S. D. Devaughn, a contractor, for services as a laborer. Mr. Devaughn pronounced the check as a forgery. When placed in a cell at police headquarters previous to his preliminary hearing, Inze announced he would end his life during the night.

CONDUCTOR LOSES LIFE.

Edgar H. Cook, conductor on the Capital Traction car line, was drowned in the Potomac river at the foot of Eighth street, southwest, Washington, yesterday afternoon. The body was recovered by the crew of the police launch Major Sylvester, and is now at the morgue. Report was made to the harbor police by John Phillips of the finding of a coat and hat on the deck of the steamer Daniel K. Johnson, lying at the foot of Eighth street. The police launch was sent to the scene, and after a few minutes' dragging recovered the body. Cook was thirty five years old, and lived at 426 8th street southwest. The police believe he accidentally fell overboard from the steamer. Mr. Cook formerly lived in this city with his mother and sister on St. Asaph street, just north of King, but left here several years ago to accept a position on the Seventh street car line in Washington.

POPULAR HOTEL.

Located on south Royal street, surrounded by railroads and in every way convenient to the traveling public is Hotel Fleischmann. Nineteen years ago when Alexandria was in its infancy in the hotel business, Mr. Fleischmann and family located here and invested their money in what at that time looked like a gloomy prospect. Up to date business methods and excellent service being the chief characteristics of the proprietors combined with the splendid edibles, the result of long years of study in the art of preparations, soon gained for the hotel a world-wide reputation. It is on the European plan only and the service furnished its patrons has given it its well-merited success. Messrs. Carl and Harry Fleischmann are the genial proprietors and with the able assistance of Mrs. M. Fleischmann, who is in every way an able helpmate, the business of today is second to none in this section.

TURBULENT WATERS.

By reason of the high winds the waters of the Potomac river have been stepping the light fantastic toe to the music of the breeze. The waves are high and very few of the smaller class of boats would venture out on the deep, being satisfied to lie moored in the docks. Even the boats tied to the wharf seem to be resting uneasily and are being tossed on the billows to such an extent that they had to be doubly secured. Nothing new has occurred on the river.

POLICE COURT.

In striking contrast to yesterday morning when at least a dozen prisoners and a hundred of the curious faced the court, this morning only one prisoner and a blank audience was in attendance when the voice of the court officer rang out "Silence in court."

A young man on the charge of assaulting J. B. Carter, a painter, was dismissed.

WATERMELON FEAST.

The young ladies of the Immanuel Church will give a unique entertainment (a watermelon feast) tonight at 207 north Alfred street. The proceeds will be devoted to the carpet fund. There will be amusements for young and old. There will be music on the occasion.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Ministerial Association of this city was held yesterday at the Young People's building, Rev. C. D. Bulla, president, in the chair. There were present Revs. C. D. Bulla, J. R. Sevier, G. L. Humphreys, W. F. Watson and W. W. Van Arsdale.

A communication was received from the Children's Home asking for support and sympathy, and it was decided to devote the offerings of one of the meetings during the Week of Prayer to this worthy object.

Rev. C. D. Bulla was elected as the representative of the association to the recognition services to be held in the Baptist Church next Monday, September 21, to speak in behalf of the denominations of the city, at which time the newly-elected pastor, Rev. W. F. Watson, will be duly installed.

Rev. J. R. Sevier announced an interesting conference to be held in the Presbyterian Church by the Laymen's Missionary Association of that denomination, and extended an invitation to the pastors and members of churches of the city to be present and co-operate in the meetings.

It was decided to change the hour of the evening services from 8 o'clock to 7:30, beginning with next Sunday, September 20.

The meeting adjourned to meet the first Monday in October.

GAME LAWS.

In connection with erroneous publications of the Virginia game laws, the following notice, containing the provisions made by the last Legislature for the protection of game, is given by Major L. T. Christian, secretary of the Game Protective Association of Virginia: Laws of Virginia protect at all times mocking bird, thrush, woodpecker, yellow hammer, red bird meadow lark, night hawk (or bat), whippoorwill, gull, crane, buzzard and all other non-game birds and their nests. It is unlawful to trap water-fowl; to hunt them or muskrats with lights; to use guns larger than 8-bore; to shoot any protected game earlier than one-half hour before sunrise or later than one-half hour after sunset, or any game on Sunday. Turkey, pheasant, grouse, quail, partridge, woodcock, November 1st to February 1st; east Blue Ridge November 1st to December 31; west Blue Ridge, deer, September 1st to December 1st, nor to trap or hunt any of them in snow. 'TWAS CIRCUS DAY.

The Frank Robbins circus visited Olean yesterday, and gave clean, attractive and entertaining performances, afternoon and evening. The Robbins show is one of the good old fashioned one ring kind, where you can see all that is "doing," and while there are not one hundred and one "turns" as in the big three rings circuses, what there is is good. The tents were well filled both afternoon and evening, and those present seemed satisfied that they had received their money's worth. The show people claim no following of "sharks" and gamblers, and no complaints along that line were made during their visit in Olean. The Robbins shows can be credited with fulfilling all that they promise.—[Olean Times.

The Frank A. Robbins shows will exhibit in Alexandria, Thursday, September 24.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY.

The public schools of Alexandria county will reopen for a nine months' session, on Monday, September 21. Superintendent Clements yesterday approved a building on Fort Myer Heights for temporary school purposes until the new schoolhouse is completed at that point. New and up-to-date plans are now being prepared to take the place of the schoolhouse, the erection of which was enjoined last month by the superintendent of county schools before the judge of the Circuit Court. The plans at that time being objected to by Superintendent Clements because they were antiquated and did not meet with the requirement of the regulations of the Board of Education at Richmond.

A Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club will be organized in the county on the night of September 23.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night was well attended and the reports from the various committees showed the work well in hand.

The organization expressed its appreciation of the action of the railroads in making Alexandria again a stop for all passenger trains. In this connection Mr. S. P. Fisher, the corporation attorney, who has been following the work done by the Chamber of Commerce in line with instructions from the City Council, expresses himself as being well pleased with the outcome and thinks that this will relieve any cause for complaint on the part of the city.

DEATHS.

Miss Mary Elton Shaffer, daughter of Mrs. Mary and the late Charles G. Shaffer, died at her home, 210 south Henry street, this morning after a short illness. The deceased was 23 years old. Her funeral will take place from Grace Church on Thursday at 2 p. m.

Walter, the nine-year-old son of Mr. John and Mrs. Louise Jeffries, died last night at his parents' home, 421 Wilkes street. He had been a sufferer from typhoid fever.

TO RACE SUNDAY.

The committee to make final arrangements for the keel boat race next Sunday, September 20, will meet at the Elkton tonight It is expected that at least 10 boats will compete for the cash prizes. The owners of the various keel boats are expected to be present. The meeting will occur at 8 o'clock.

MOTION PICTURES.

The attendance of the motion picture houses increases nightly and the new scenes presented are much enjoyed. Special show at the Alexandria Amusement Company tonight consisting of "A Midwinter Night's Dream," "Customs Officers and Smugglers" and in addition the reels of last night will be repeated. All good reels.

At the Opera House De Chaunt, equilibrist, with his educated fox terriers will again perform. This was a decided hit last night and drew a large crowd. There will also be a change in moving pictures.

The Elite Picture Company opened its week last night with its usual crowded house. Special pictures for tonight. "A Gypsy's Revenge," and "A Phlegmatic Gentleman." These are fine subjects, and are well worth seeing. "Andy Thumse," the comedy tramp-juggler held the audience in laughter all through his act which was very much appreciated.

Dr. Bennett's free show at the corner of Columbus and Wythe streets still attracts large crowds each night.

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. It always cures. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

LEPER WILL BE MOVED.

Whether John R. Early, the leper, will spend the remainder of his days in the District, still rests in the hands of Corporation Counsel Thomas.

No decision as to whether the District of Columbia will file suit in the Supreme Court of the United States to compel the State of North Carolina to accept Early within its bounds, has been reached by the legal counsel of the commissioners.

Health office physicians said, last night, that if Early remains in the District, a frame house, equipped with all modern improvements, will be erected for him. That it is improbable Early will live where his isolated tent is now pitched, was the assertion made by one of the District physicians. Where the house will be built has not yet been determined, but it is understood the structure will be erected in the less densely populated section of the northwestern part of the city.

Best Treatment for a Burn.

If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in the treatment of burns. It allays the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequaled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cents. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The eighth International Congress for the Prevention of Accidents will be held in Europe this year.

A cord of wood ordinarily yields about one ton of mechanical pulp or about one half ton of chemical pulp.

There are nearly 50 clocks on the giant ocean liner Lusitania, controlled by a master clock in the charthouse.

The river Polk flows into a cave in the side of a mountain and completely disappears, at Adelsberg, near Trieste.

At the present moment the countries of Europe are spending on their armies and navies as much as $4,000,000 a day.

An air-gun of large size, working on the principle of the pneumatic hammer, has been devised for killing animals in a humane manner.

A giant elm tree at Walcott was recently cut down. It was the last of the original forest. The stump was 15 feet in circumference and the rings indicated that it was fully 300 years old. The body will make at least 2,500 feet of lumber, and the top 25 cords of wood.

Tired of Him.

At a trial in Scotland a lady got into the witness box to be examined, when the following conversation took place between her and the opposing counsel:

Counsel—How old are you?

Miss Jane—Oh, weel, sir, I am an unmarried woman and dinna think it right to answer that question.

The Judge—Oh, yes; answer the gentleman. How old are you?

Miss Jane—Weel-a-weel, I am fifty.

Counsel—Are you not more?

Miss Jane—Weel, I am sixty.

The inquisitive lawyer still further asked if she had any hopes of getting married, to which Miss Jane replied:

"Weel, sir, I winna tell a lee. I hinna lost hope yet," scornfully adding, "But I widna marry you, for I am sick and tired o' your palaver already."

Psychology of Broken Jaws.

It might be a bit of a strange fact, but you would be astonished to see the broken jaws which are presented at free institutions on holidays—election day, New Year's day and the Fourth of July. A great number of fractured jaws are the result of quarrels among the very lowest classes. It surprises me that the number of broken jaws is not on the increase on account of the heated newspaper discussions that we are constantly having on various topics of the day. It has been said that were it not for the mouth nine-tenths of the gossip and the mischief of the world would be prevented. And very often were it not for the mouth there would be no broken jaws.—D. B. Breundlich in New York Medical Journal.

Shooting Stars.

When a shooting star breaks into flame in our atmosphere the residuum of the combustion remains in the air and can be found in what is known as atmospheric dust. The virgin snow of the polar regions was often seen to be spotted with traces of dust which contained particles of iron. Like particles are found on church towers and elsewhere. Among the minute bodies that dance in the sun's rays there are certainly particles of shooting stars.

Showing Him How.

"You young scoundrel," said the father, seizing his disobedient son by the hair, "I'll show you how to treat your mother!"

And he gave him several bangs on the ears and then shook him until his hair began to fall out.

Youthful Assurance.

"When I was your age," said the stern parent, "I was accumulating money of my own."

"Yes," answered the graceless youth, "but don't you think the public was easier then than it is now?"—Washington Star.

The Final Shock.

Patient—Doctor, I don't think I can use the battery any more. Will it be necessary to shock me again? Doctor—Only once more. I'll send in my bill tomorrow.

Wise men read very sharply all your private history in your look and gait and behavior.—Emerson.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to La Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarroea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into La Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into La Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.
